Commas in Compound Sentences

A. Directions: Combine each pair of simple sentences to make a compound sentence. Use a comma and the conjunction and between the clauses of the compound sentence. Write your new compound sentence on the blank line.

1. The area has sweet, fresh grass. The water is cool.

2. It is warm in the Arctic. There are no wolves to threaten the caribou.

3. The ants attack. They spray acid.

4. The zebras grow quickly. Soon, they are ready to migrate north.

B. Directions: Write your own compound sentences.

1. ____________________________________________________________

2. ____________________________________________________________