Dialogue, Commas, and Quotation Marks

A. Directions: Read each sentence and then put the quotation marks and commas in the correct places to show where the dialogue starts and ends.

1. “Don’t leave yet,” said my older sister.

2. “Dad and I are going to the park,” I said.

3. My sister said, “I heard that there was a big race at the park today.”

4. “It should be a fun day,” she said.

5. “Yes, I’ll hurry and get ready,” said my sister.

6. “We’re off to the races,” we all said as we ran out the door.

B. Directions: Write a sentence of your own that uses dialogue. Don’t forget to use quotation marks and commas.

Example: “Wait a minute,” Dad said.
