Plural Possessives

A. Directions: Read each sentence. Rewrite them, using an apostrophe to change plural nouns into plural possessive nouns.

1. The soldiers feet were tired from the many miles of walking.
   __________________________________________

2. The mountains peaks were jagged and rocky.
   __________________________________________

3. The captains decision was to continue on with the long journey.
   __________________________________________

4. Soup made from cows hooves tasted disgusting to the soldiers.
   __________________________________________

5. The Corps uniforms were soiled and tattered from the winds of winter.
   __________________________________________

B. Directions: Write two sentences, each using a plural possessive noun.

1. __________________________________________
   __________________________________________

2. __________________________________________
   __________________________________________