Demonstrative Pronouns

That and Those

A. Directions: Read each sentence. Circle the demonstrative pronoun. Write whether the pronoun is singular or plural.

1. That is the guy who tried to borrow my bike.

2. Those are the parachutes we need, over there on the grass.

3. I heard a loud noise—what was that?

4. Those are the nurses who work at the hospital.

B. Directions: Write four sentences using that and those as pronouns representing specific nouns. Example sentences are provided.

1. That is the book I read for my essay.

2. Those people made a lot of noise during the concert.

3. That is the school I will attend next year.

4. Where are those socks that match my uniform?