Parts of Speech

A. Directions: Read each sentence. Label the nouns, verbs, and adjectives with the letters \( N \), \( V \), or \( A \).

1. These students compete with students from around the world.

2. Schools have added days and hours to their school calendars.

3. We need to tell students to turn off the TVs and get to work.

4. Keep students focused on learning or pay the consequences.

5. Children need structure in their lives so they can become productive citizens.

B. Directions: Write two sentences about your feelings on having year-round school. Include nouns, verbs, adjectives, at least one pronoun, and at least one adverb.

1. _______________________________
   _______________________________

2. _______________________________
   _______________________________