Parentheses

Directions: Read each sentence. Add parentheses in the correct places.

1. Every 30 or 40 miles (48 or 64 kilometers) the length of a day’s journey, the caravans would stop at inns.

2. The completed cocoon is one single thread 2,000 to 3,000 feet (610 to 914 meters) long!

3. The network of routes covers more than 91,000 miles (147,000 kilometers).

4. The silkworm larvae are kept in containers at a constant temperature between 65°F and 77°F (18°C to 25°C).

5. The small van slowly descended a side road of the Karakoram (kar-uh-KOR-um) Highway in northern Pakistan.