Adverbs Ending with -ly

A. Directions: Read the personal narrative. Draw a circle around the adverb in each sentence.

When I looked at the horse, I briefly thought about leaving. But my teacher gently lifted me into the saddle. I sat nervously on the horse. I held the reins loosely. The horse started to walk quickly! I calmly pulled on the reins. The horse walked more slowly. When I got down from the horse, I hugged her tightly.

B. Directions: Choose one of the adverbs from the personal narrative and write a sentence using it.

Example: The horse gently nuzzled me.
