Proper Nouns

Directions: Read each sentence and then rewrite each sentence using correct capital letters for the proper nouns.

1. reggie and donald rode their bikes on wednesday.
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________

2. The month of march is a good time to fly kites at branson park.
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________

3. My family saw dr. smith at his office on maple road.
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________

4. Can I play with sophia on saturday?
   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________

5. Every november, we celebrate thanksgiving.
   __________________________________________________________