Nouns

Directions: Use each noun in the box to write your own sentences. Then underline the nouns in your sentences. You may use more than one noun in each sentence.

Nouns

butterflies scientists North Pole summer Earth bird

Example sentences are provided.

________________________________________

Scientists study migrating butterflies.

________________________________________

I would like to visit the North Pole in the summer.

________________________________________

Earth is a big, beautiful planet.

________________________________________

We watched a bird build its nest.