Quotation Marks in Dialogue

A. Directions: Rewrite each sentence, adding quotation marks around the spoken words.

1. I am so ready to begin our hike, Mom told me.
   “I am so ready to begin our hike,” Mom told me.

2. Wait for me! my grandmother yelled.
   “Wait for me!” my grandmother yelled.

3. That’s where people who die hiking are buried, we joked.
   “That’s where people who die hiking are buried,” we joked.

4. There is a shortcut to the right, two ladies told us.
   “There is a shortcut to the right,” two ladies told us.

5. I am too tired to walk all the way up, my grandfather replied.
   “I am too tired to walk all the way up,” my grandfather replied.

B. Directions: Write two sentences of dialogue between you and a friend. Use quotation marks around the spoken words.

1. Example: “Let’s walk around the lake tomorrow,” I said.

2. Example: “That sounds fun,” Mary said.