Plural Possessives

A. Directions: Read each sentence. Rewrite them, using an apostrophe to change plural nouns into plural possessive nouns.

1. The soldiers feet were tired from the many miles of walking.
   The soldiers’ feet were tired from the many miles of walking.

2. The mountains peaks were jagged and rocky.
   The mountains’ peaks were jagged and rocky.

3. The captains decision was to continue on with the long journey.
   The captains’ decision was to continue on with the long journey.

4. Soup made from cows hooves tasted disgusting to the soldiers.
   Soup made from cows’ hooves tasted disgusting to the soldiers.

5. The Corps uniforms were soiled and tattered from the winds of winter.
   The Corps’ uniforms were soiled and tattered from the winds of winter.

B. Directions: Write two sentences, each using a plural possessive noun.

1. Example: The soldiers’ backpacks were dusty.

2. Example: The cows’ hooves trampled the grass.