Active and Passive Voices

A. Directions: Read each sentence. Decide if the verb is active or passive and write active or passive on the line.

1. These fats keep your neuron connections healthy.

2. Blood and oxygen are pumped by your brain into your heart.

3. Your brain sends out hormones to your body.

4. A serious stroke was suffered by Luis Alvarez.

5. The plastic dries in the same form.

B. Directions: Write two sentences with active verbs and two sentences with passive verbs.

1. ____________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________

2. ____________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________

3. ____________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________

4. ____________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________