Multiple Adjectives

A. Directions: Read each sentence and underline the adjectives. Then insert a comma, if needed, between the multiple adjectives in the sentence.

1. After the war, the small, impoverished country of Bangladesh was created.

2. The agreement allowed access to shorter, quicker routes to China.

3. The long trade route connects the East and the West.

4. It will travel through a vast, grassy section of land that is home to herds of gazelles.

5. Scientists from the Wildlife Conservation Society are concerned that the road will ruin the habitat of the graceful Asian creatures.

B. Directions: Write two sentences containing multiple adjectives: one with and one without a comma between the adjectives.

1. Example: The steep, rocky path wound up the hill.

2. Example: The northern inland seas are very cold.